

2017 New England Conservatorium DoE Bursaries

The New England Conservatorium of Music, through funding support from the NSW Department of Education (DoE) will be offering a number of bursaries for students of the Conservatorium for the year 2017. The bursaries are provided to help students who may not be able to continue with their music without some financial help. Each bursary will provide up to 50% of tuition fees for a private 30 minute lesson or for up to 50% of a program fee.

To apply for the bursary please complete the Bursary Application Form supplied. The information you supply will help determine your eligibility for bursary assistance, and will be strictly confidential.

Bursary Conditions

1. A bursary will pay for up to 50% of the total cost of 30 minute lessons for the 2017 calendar year.
2. Conservatorium bursaries are open to applicants of any age and any instrumental area.
3. The decision of the New England Conservatorium of Music is final and correspondence will not be entered into.
4. All applications must be accompanied by proof of income or they will be ineligible for consideration.
5. All information supplied will be strictly confidential.
6. The instrumental teacher may be asked to comment on the student.
7. Applicants must be enrolled as a student of the New England Conservatorium of Music or of a Music Educator Member of NECOM.
8. Staff and family of staff members are eligible to enter.
9. Students who currently receive a DoE bursary for Conservatorium lessons in 2016 are eligible to apply.
10. Students who currently receive an Aberaldie Foundation Bursary for the 2016/2017 financial year are not eligible to apply.
11. The successful applicant must notify the New England Conservatorium of Music should a change in circumstances waive the need for a bursary.
12. The Conservatorium reserves the right to withdraw the bursary at any time should the bursary conditions not be met.
