

CODE OF CONDUCT: CHILDREN

All children and young people participating in NECOM's activities agree to the following codes of behaviour.

We will

- be respectful and friendly to everyone and welcome new children joining the group.
- follow instructions and play by the rules
- have a say about activities we take part in
- report any concerns or worries

We will not

- be a bully
- leave the group without telling an adult where we are going
- interfere with any other students' learning
